Sarna's HPG Station: Latest Newsbursts: 15 April 2019: Forgotten Worlds - Book 3 script published On the BattleTech Forum, author and ex-Line Developer Herbert A. Beas has begun publishing the hitherto unpublished third part of the Forgotten Worlds serial, titled "Escape from Jardine". Mind that, at this point, the publication is unofficial and thus technically amounts to fan fiction. Unseen refers to certain imagery, namely the visual appearance of a number of iconic BattleMechs, that has not been depicted in official publications since 1996 for legal reasons. The units as such—their BattleTech names, game stats and history—always remained part of the BattleTech canon.. The term "unseen" is alternatively used either as a noun, to summarily refer to the real-world ...Combat Support Field Manual - Uploaded 04-21-2004 Here is an awesome reference for people who wish to use support elements in their BattleTech campaigns. Complete with information relevant to each major faction, and descriptions of everything from shipping containers to medical support, this is by far one of the best collections of information I have ever seen. References In Films. The Life Aquatic with Steve Zissou. According to Richard Musser and Javanod : This may be a bit of a stretch, but the final scene in Banzai, with the credits rolling and theme music playing, as all the characters join each other and walk together in lockstep, seems to have been "homaged"/borrowed by another good movie, The Life Aquatic with Steve Zissou.
