Letters are kind of old-fashioned; e-mail is quicker and a regular part of our lives now. But there's something special about a letter and the time it takes for it to be written, put a stamp on it, and get the letter to its recipient. Share letters real and imagined in the pages of these books. Meet grand exaggerators and characters that live only in fairy tales. Ike LaRue, famous correspondent (introduced in Dear Mrs. LaRue) known by readers as a four-legged letter writer with a flair for exaggeration now turns to solving the mysterious disappearance of neighborhood cats. Yesterday was a first for me - I ran my first 5k! It's not as monumental as it may sound, as running is not new to me (I played lacrosse in college), but it was my first experience with a race. © Macmillan/McGraw-Hill Baseball Mighty Jackie New Places, New Faces My Diary from Here to There Focus on China Stealing Beauty Bright Ideas How Ben Franklin Stole
