The HTC Desire (codenamed Bravo) is the first smartphone of the Desire series developed by HTC. It was announced on 16 February 2010 and released in Europe and Australia in the second quarter of the same year. The HTC Desire was HTC's third flagship phone running Android, 2.1 Eclair which can be upgraded to 2.2 Froyo or 2.3 Gingerbread. Internally it bears a strong resemblance to the Nexus One ... In March 2010, Apple Inc. filed a complaint with the US International Trade Commission claiming infringement of 20 of its patents covering aspects of the iPhone user interface and hardware. HTC disagreed with Apple's actions and reiterated its commitment to creating innovative smartphones. HTC also filed a complaint against Apple for infringing on five of its patents and sought to ban the ... "Getting the HTC U11 life you're having it at an affordable price. The Usonic headphones are really, really great, so getting that in box is a bonus and is definitely a great value." Good Evening Everybody, As most of us are using HTC phones, and are experiencing issues with battery life, I have been researching on other forums and on the xda developers website, to see if anyone has come across ways to improve battery power to ensure the device can operate for longer hours than we are currently experiencing. and I am pleased to say that a solution is there and after ...
