The Foundation of Ayuthia: Damrong (Rajanubhab), H.R.H. Prince: On Siamese Proverbs and Idiomatic ExpressionsThe word agnostic was coined by the English biologist T.H. Huxley in the late 1860s as a member of the now defunct Metaphysical Society, in response to what he perceived as an abundance there of strongly held beliefs. The original usage of the term was confined to philosophy and religion, and referred to Huxley's assertion that anything beyond the material world, including the existence and ...
