My Lesson Planner allows you to choose how you see your standards if your state standards are leveled and broken down by grade and subject. For example, if you only teach English in grades 9-12, you can lock your standards down to only see English Standards, or if you teach all subjects in grade 5, you can lock it down so that you only see grade 5 standards. The content students are required to learn, or curriculum, can change for several reasons. This lesson explores these reasons and gives examples of curricular modifications in the classroom. In this lesson plan, ELL students will be exposed to vocabulary words about travel. After initial exposure to the words, students will apply their knowledge to play an engaging vocabulary ... Department of Social Sciences The overarching goal of social studies instruction is to prepare students to be knowledgeable, informed, and active citizens in an increasingly diverse community and nation and interdependent world.
